

City of Charleston

JOHN J. TECKLENBURG
MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Palmetto State is home to six commercial service airports, 61 general aviation airports and 4 busy military airfields that provide essential support to South Carolina's diversified business base, increasing population and growing tourism industry; and

WHEREAS, airports support and assist South Carolina in many ways including recreational flying, providing a gateway to communities and tourist attractions, accommodating agricultural spraying, supporting air cargo and air freight shipments, helping law enforcement, supporting the military and its operations, providing access in times of emergency and supporting medical needs and the medical profession; and

WHEREAS, many businesses in our state rely on aviation, both commercial service and general aviation airports, for the efficient transportation of people and goods; and

WHEREAS, with over 100 aerospace-related companies in the Palmetto State, aviation is a multibillion dollar industry and, along with commercial service airports, general aviation airports, and military airfields, supports more than 70,000 jobs and contributes millions each year in tax benefits to state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, the nation's aviation infrastructure represents an important public benefit, and Congressional oversight should be in place to ensure stable funding of this system; and

WHEREAS, I encourage all of our citizens to recognize general aviation for its significant contributions to our quality of life and economic growth and stability.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John J. Tecklenburg, Mayor, City of Charleston, do hereby proclaim August 20–26, 2017 as:

GENERAL AVIATION WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand, and cause the seal of Charleston to be affixed, this 25th day of July in the year of 2017.

John J. Tecklenburg, Mayor
